Test Batches and Murrini Seconds Available January 1st at 12 am Pacific!

We will be starting the New Year with several new test batches, repeat tests of the colors you loved this summer and murrini seconds.

New Test Batches

ST-435

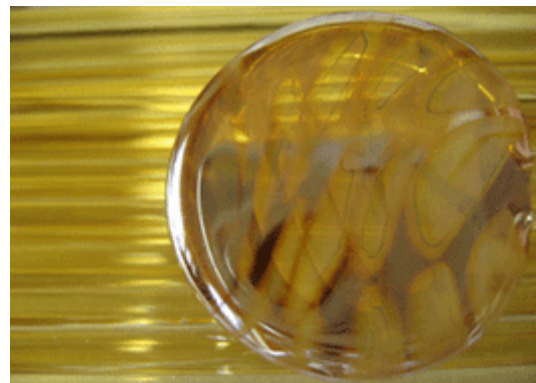

OO-411

Murrini seconds are sold at a discount because either the rod or the pattern is imperfect. They will be sold in 1 oz mixed baggies at $10 each.

Repeat Test Batches

To help us narrow down which colors to put into production in 2011 we've made a few more batches of some of your favorite test batches this summer. Give them a try and let us know if you'd like to see them become permanent colors!
