TE-265

Are we getting hotter or colder?

Yes, it's true. We are still trying to resurrect Terra but we've been trying so hard for so long we can't tell anymore!

Are we getting closer? You tell us. Just yell out "Getting hot" if we're getting close or "Getting cold" if we're getting further away.

Aether 2nds

Aether is a colorless encasing glass designed for superb workability in the flame. It is engineered to be resistant to boiling, free from seed bubbles, and handled with the utmost care to ensure freedom from scratches and dust.

In other words, it is our clear.

Unfortunately, we get a very small quantity of perfect, bubble free cane in one batch of Aether. So we want to know if you will you still love Aether if she has up to 4 bubbles per rod and retails at $40/lb?

Terranova2 Shards

Available in 1oz tins for $12.50.

Should we make more colors available as shards?

We hope you are well and off to a great start this new year!
