AETHER TUESDAYS!

Many of you have been asking when Aether will be available again. Some of you received the February 15th email that it was in stock but by the time you read the email it was sold out. In order to avoid that problem, we will be restocking Aether at the same day and time every week. We will restock on Tuesdays at 12 pm Pacific time. That's lunch time not midnight. There will be a five pound limit. Hopefully after a few weeks the demand will be met, Aether will stay in stock and we can remove the five pound limit.

Thank you!
