ZE-452, a clear glass, has been formulated in response to requests for a version of Aether that does not exhibit reactions with silver lusters. ZE-452 has been formulated to melt smoothly and easlily, resist boiling and scumming, have a low reactivity with silver lusters, exhibit a low seed count and have a pristine surface due to careful handling.

In order to get the best responses to our survey there will be a one pound limit.

We'd like to know if this formula fits your needs for a clear glass that doesn't boil, scum or react to silver glass. We are so eager to receive feedback from you that we are offering $20 Double Helix Glassworks e-Gift Certificates when you answer our survey! Links to the survey will be emailed after the glass has shipped. You'll need to have played with the ZE-452 and you'll need your order number. Although we'd appreciate feedback anytime, gift certificates will only be sent to those that answer the survey by June 6th 2011.
